B. VISITORS AND GUESTS

- Visitors above the age of 18 years are permitted to enter the common lobby at the ground floor between 9am and 6pm, but must abide by the following rules:
- Only one visitor is allowed per tenant at one time.
- Adhere to the Contract, Terms & Conditions, and House Rules. Tenants will be held fully accountable for the actions of their visitor;
- Visitors are strictly prohibited from staying overnight;
- Any tenant who does not follow these rules will have their rights to accept visitors suspended for the duration of their contract. Any visitor not following these rules is to be escorted outside of the building as soon as found.

C. YOUR RIGHT TO PRIVACY, OUR RIGHT TO INSPECT

- Privacy. There is no guarantee of the tenant's absolute privacy. Woke Coliving representatives will make every effort to contact and schedule an appointment to enter a tenant's unit when necessary. In the case of Lessor employees entering a tenant's unit, Woke Coliving representatives are required to knock loudly three times, announce themselves and wait for a response. If no response is made after the three attempts, the door will be opened and the team will proceed with their official business.
- Search and Seizure. In proper cases, any tenant suspected of possessing illegal drugs, contrabands, dangerous weapons and explosives shall automatically be subjected to a mandatory search of his/her room and property. If search is authorized, the tenant must fully cooperate. An official from the local barangay or any local government unit having jurisdiction of the Coliving Building will be contacted to become a witness during the unit search and to ensure that the rights of the tenant are not violated.
- Caught in the Act. Prohibited items caught in the act of possession of and/or use by a tenant shall be immediately confiscated.

4. Right to Inspect. Woke Coliving conducts inspection of units from time to time, be it for security, cleanliness, in cases of emergencies, or if a room is reported to be unclean or if a tenant is reported to be in violation of the House Rules Agreement.

D. USAGE AND CARE OF FACILITIES AND FIXTURES

1. Unit

- a. Linen. Woke Coliving will provide a clean set of beddings upon move-in. The Linen Package Includes, one (1) pillow, one (1) pillow case, (1) Bed Sheet Cover.
- b. Damage. Tenants are responsible for any damage done to their assigned bed, unit, furnishings and fittings.
- c. Alteration. No permanent alterations to the unit are allowed.
- d. Energy Conservation. For the benefit of the environment and the tenants' utility bills, conserve energy by switching off the lights and air-conditioning when leaving the unit and also close the windows when the air-conditioning unit is on.
- e. Drying Clothes. Tenants are not allowed to hang anything on the walls, windows, bed frames, sewage pipes, or on the fire sprinklers of their units.
- f. Condition of Unit. Cleaning of the unit and its appliances is the responsibility of the tenants, and shall be done regularly to avoid a dirty unit, foul odors, molds, and/or pests. Tenants may at any time request the Woke Coliving cleaning services at a fee if the tenant prefers to do so to comply with these house rules. In the event that the LESSOR notices that the rooms are not cleaned or maintained properly, the room shall be scheduled for one-time cleaning, and tenants shall be charged four hundred pesos (Php 400.00), which will be divided amongst the existing tenants and billed to the next billing cycle.
- g. Storage of Perishable Goods. Perishable goods must be stored properly to avoid pests in the unit and/or building.

2. Bathroom and Lavatory

- a. Shower. Hair strands and other waste material left in the bathroom shall NOT be flushed down the toilet and/or shower drain as this will cause clogging of the sewage pipes, and therefore must be picked up and disposed of properly.
- b. Toilet. Toilet bowl must be properly flushed and cleaned after every use. To avoid clogging of the toilet, used items shall be thrown into the garbage bin.
- c. Disposal. Unhygienic trash must be properly disposed of, by wrapping it in paper/plastic before disposing into the receptacle.
- d. Water Consumption. Close all faucets and water outlets well when not in use.

3. Discovery of Damage

- a. Tenants shall notify the reception staff of any necessary repairs to the units or premises as soon as the same is discovered, or risk being charged for its repair. The repair of any damage to the unit or appliances that are due to tenant's negligence, fault or misuse shall be charged to the tenant.

4. Pantries

- a. Pantries shall be kept clean and tenants are responsible to clean up their waists and dirt immediately.
- b. Food can only be stored within the fridge. The fridge is cleaned every fortnight and leftover food will be disposed of.
- c. As the pantries' fridges are for community use, the tenants must be considerable and occupy minimum space, not overstocking, and keep your food in order.
- d. Storing food in the pantries (except for the food stored in the fridges) is not allowed.
- e. Cutleries, plates, mugs and other containers can be stored in the pantries, but these shall be clean and dry. Woke Coliving is not responsible for any damage or loss.

Unlisted Damages and Cost Recovery

Any damage to property, furnishings, fixtures, or equipment within the premises that is not explicitly covered in the House Rules shall be assessed and charged to the responsible Tenant. Charges will be based on the actual supplier cost of repair or replacement, plus a handling fee to cover Woke Coliving staff time, coordination, and administrative processing.

The handling fee shall be determined based on the nature and extent of the damage, with a minimum charge of Five Hundred Pesos (₱500.00). Woke Coliving reserves the right to issue a formal damage report and invoice, which must be settled within fifteen (15) days from issuance.
